LEGE, PRO REGE.

SEPTEMBER 26, 1774.

CHARLES-TOWN: Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, Printer to the Honourable the COMMONS HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY.

From the PUBLIC LEDGER, Auguſt 4, 1774.

AN Empire, like the human body, has its times of infancy, maturity, and decay; in the laſt ſtate LUXURY, and never-failing attendant CORRUPTION, will render eaſy the attempts of an arbitrary Prince, who means to ſubvert the Liberties of his Country. No ſuperior abilities are required, a man of the WEAKEST and moſt CONTEMPTIBLE intellects, may then, by OBSTINACY alone, carry into execution meaſures againſt Public Freedom, which at other times, though conducted with the greateſt policy, would equally end in the deſtruction of thoſe who propoſed them.

All men might be free, if they had but VIRTUE enough to be ſo; it is their own depravity that urges and aſſiſts their reſpective Tyrants to enſlave them; would they but VIGOROUSLY UNITE againſt the deſigns of Deſpotiſm, where is the Tyrant, who, together with his Mercenaries, would not ſhrink before them?

The people of this country are bleſſed with a form of government, ſo wiſely contrived, ſo well adapted for ſecuring the legal liberties of the ſubject, that with a ſmall ſhare of national virtue they muſt ever riſe ſuperior in every conteſt they may have in oppoſing the ambitious views of their Princes. Yet, from the complexion of the preſent times, were we ſo unfortunate as to have a Prince, who could be WEAK ENOUGH to ſuppoſe his happineſs incompatible with that of his ſubjects, and conſequently ſhould he endeavour to encreaſe his own power by INSIDIOUSLY leſſening their CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS, there is reaſon to fear the oppoſition he would now meet with, would be too faint to obſtruct his deſigns.

That noble enthuſiaſm in the defence of Freedom, which formerly actuated the inhabitants of this Iſland, ſeems now to have totally deſerted us; the nervous, manly reſiſtance OF THE ARM, to which our anceſtors, in times of Public Danger conſtantly appealed, would be now neglected, and the idle privilege of BABBLING ſubſtituted in its place; inſtead of ſtriving to be FOREMOST IN THE FIELD, and contending like MEN for the preſervation of our Laws, we ſhould employ ourſelves in preſenting Remonſtrance after Remonſtrance, and though the contemptuous manner they were received in ſhould fully convince us of the INSIGNIFICANCY of ſuch proceedings, yet ſhould we want the SPIRIT to apply more COERCIVE remedies againſt the injuries we complained of; thus, by the poſillanimity of our behaviour, Public Freedom, by REPEATED INFRINGEMENTS, would at laſt be entirely deſtroyed, and we ſhould find ourſelves involved in the ſame ſlavery as our neighbour nations. Liberty once loſt is irrecoverable; from being a nation poſſeſſed of legal Freedom, which has been the envy and admiration of the world, we ſhould become the vileſt Slaves that ever groaned beneath the rod of tyranny.

The preſent degeneracy of the people, Sir, authoriſes ſuch fears; yet, if the time required it, I will hope there are ſtill left a few TRUE Friends of Freedom; a few VIRTUOUS CITIZENS, Lovers of their Country, who would not fear riſquing their lives and fortunes in ſtemming that torrent of Corruption which has for a long time been weakening our Conſtitution, and which muſt, from its own conſequences, if not ſpeedily ſtopped, totally overwhelm it. From ſuch men as theſe, whatever claſs of life they rank in, are the DYING Liberties of our Country to be revived, their examples will not fail inſpiring many others who at preſent, enervated with Luxury, and debauched with Corruption, can ſee the ARBITRARY STRIDES of Power without any emotion; who, forgetting what THEY OWE to themſelves; forgetting what THEY OWE to poſterity, would accelerate, by their ſupineneſs, the ſlavery meditating for them, when by one VIGOROUS EXERTION they might reſtore the expiring Liberties of their Country, immortalize their own names to the lateſt ages, and be for ever ranked amongſt thoſe HEROES, to whom next to the Almighty, mankind are moſt indebted for every bleſſing they enjoy; ſhould they even fail in their GLORIOUS attempt, what have they to fear? Will HONEST men wiſh to ſurvive the Liberties of their Country? Will they not rather BURY themſelves in its ruins, and prove to their cruel deſtroyers, that as they WERE BORN and had lived FREE, they were determined to DIE ſo.

To the PRINTERS.

FROM an extract of a letter from a southern colony, and the publications in last Thursday's Gazette, it is very evident a scheme has been concerted by some Persons to frustrate any attempts that might be made to suspend our trade with Great-Britain, till our most intolerable grievances are redressed. The scheme appears to be, to seem to agree to the suspension in case all agreed, and then by contriving some passage in a letter from the Committee of another province, that they had not agreed, to declare that the conditional signers were not holden. A GAME or two of such mercantile policy would soon have convinced the world that Lord North had a just idea of the colonies; and that notwithstanding their real power to prove a rope of hemp to him, they were a rope of sand in reality, among themselves. I would beg leave to ask the voluminous Queriists referred to, whether they conceive a non-consumption agreement would ever have been thought of in the country, could our brethren there have persuaded themselves that the merchants were in earnest to suspend trade the little time there was between our receiving the Port-Bill, and the appointment of a Congress, or any other general measure come into, from which a radical relief might be expected? 2. Whether the trade in their last meeting declaring, That their conditional agreement was dissolved, on pretence that advices from New-York and Philadelphia were totally discouraging, was not highly unbecoming a People whose peculiar circumstances rendered it their duty to stop their trade to Great-Britain the moment the Port-Bill reached the shore of America? 3. Whether they conceive the Committee of Boston planned the non-consumption agreement, and sent it first into the country for their adoption? Or rather, Whether the country, enraged at their preposterous Management, did not originate the plan and press the Committee to have it digested, printed and recommended throughout the colony? 4. I would enquire, Whether a backwardness in the province, actually suffering, to come into the only peaceful measure that remains for our extrication from slavery, would not naturally excuse every other province from taking one step for the common salvation? 5. Whether in that case all the trade of the province, whether consisting of Spring, Summer, or Fall Importations, would in the end be worth an oyster-shell? 6. Whether all the bugbears started against the Worcester covenant, as holding up the taking a solemn oath to "withdraw all commercial connections," which our honest commentators tell the people means even to deny buying or selling greens or potatoes to them, does not betray a great want of that candour and manly generosity which is expected from well-bred and reasonable citizens? 7. Whether the suggestion that the Boston merchants ceasing to import, will throw the trade into the hands of importers in other provinces, is not utterly unbecoming an inhabitant of that town, into which the beneficence of the whole continent is ready to flow in the most exemplary manner? For shame! Self interested morals, cease to draw upon your worthy fellow-citizens the just resentment of millions. If there may be some punctilios wrong in the non-consumption agreement, the united wisdom of the continent will surely be capable of setting matters right at the general Congress; and no gentleman trader, be his haste ever so great to get rich, need distress himself so mightily about the profits of one Fall Importation, if the constant clamour of the trade for two years past, that they did business for nothing, had any foundation.

THE present tyranny produces glorious effects in the country towns—The passion for American manufactures, and a dislike to every thing British, grows rapidly. I am convinced that the oppressions we now suffer, will, in the event, be vastly advantageous, and promote the growth, wealth, and independence of America. The non-consumption agreement will cut up the whole system of tyranny by the roots, and fix the freedom of this country on a sure foundation.——This the faction who are conspiring to enslave us are fully sensible of; and therefore every art which Satan can devise or his under tyrants execute, will be employed to defeat this most salutary measure. It is most certain, that there are but three choices left for the Americans; they must either preserve their rights by breaking off all commerce with Britain, or defend them with the sword, or submit to the horrors of slavery:—Therefore every man ought immediately to determine what part he will act, and declare his opinion openly. At this day, when the relentless hand of oppression is tearing out the vitals of Freedom, and mocking justice silence is guilt, and inaction is infamy: the great contention ought to be, who shall do most for the salvation of his country. The greatest crime man can commit against man, is to destroy his liberty—and consequently to defend it, must be the highest virtue.—Therefore whoever in this important day when the liberty of America trembles on the brink of ruin, shall not exert all his powers to preserve it, must be regarded as an abandoned wretch.

BOSTON, JULY 4.

AT a meeting of the freeholders and other inhabitants of the town of BOSTON, by adjournment, at Faneuil-Hall, June 27, 1774.

Mr. SAMUEL ADAMS, Moderator.

Upon a motion made, Voted. That the committee of correspondence be directed to lay before the town the letters which they have wrote to the other colonies, as well as those sent to the other towns in this province, since the receipt of the Boston Port-Bill.

The Hall not being sufficient to contain all the inhabitants assembled, the meeting was adjourned to the Old South Meeting-House.

The town being again met according to adjournment. A motion being made and passed, that all letters received, as well as the answers returned, be laid before the town, and read.

After the Town Clerk had accordingly read a number of said letters, a motion was made, that the said vote be so far re considered as, that the reading of all other letters, previous to the covenant sent into the country, by the Committee of Correspondence, and the letters accompanying the same, be suspended for the present, and that the Town proceed to the reading of the said letter and covenant, and any other letters that may be particularly called for.

The said covenant, and a number of letters, having been read, a motion was made, that some censure be now passed by the Town, on the conduct of the Committee of Correspondence, and that said Committee be annihilated.

Mr. Adams, the Moderator, then moved, that as the conduct of the Committee of Correspondence, for this Town, of which he had the honour of being a member, is now to be considered, another Moderator might be chosen, pro tem.

The Honourable THOMAS CUSHING, was accordingly chosen Moderator, during that debate.

The motion for censuring and annihilating the Committee of Correspondence was considered and the gentlemen in favour of the motion, patiently heard, but it being dark, and these declaring that they had further to offer, it was voted, that the consideration thereof be referred to the next meeting; and the Meeting was accordingly adjourned.

TUESDAY, June 28, 10 o'Clock. Met according to adjournment.

The motion for censuring and annihilating the Committee of Correspondence again considered, and after long debates, the question was accordingly put, which passed in the Negative, by a vast majority.

It was then moved, That the following vote be passed, viz. That this town bear open testimony, that they are abundantly satisfied of the upright intentions, and much approve the honest zeal of the Committee of Correspondence, and desire that they would persevere with their usual activity and firmness, continuing stedfast in the way of well doing."——And the question being put, passed in the affirmative by a vast majority.

The Committee on ways and means for employing the poor, acquainted the town, that they had met, and had received very encouraging accounts of the readiness of their sister-colonies to assist us, and various proposals from sundry persons for employing the poor, upon which they were deliberating, but were not yet prepared to report, required further time, which was allowed them.

Mr. ADAMS again in the Chair.

A motion made, that this meeting be adjourned to Tuesday the 19th of July, at 11 o'clock, A. M. to meet at Faneuil-Hall; and the meeting was adjourned accordingly.

Attest. WILLIAM COOPER, Town-Clerk.

Mr. Treasurer GRAY, asserted in the last Town Meeting that many Towns had rejected the Covenant not to consume British manufactures with indignation; upon being pressed to name one, he named the Town of Worcester.—But we have the most undoubted authority to assure the Public, that the covenant has been adopted and already signed by more than three Quarters of the Freeholders of that Town. Some other Parts of that Gentleman's extraordinary Speech will probably be animadverted on, particularly his very whimsical Declaration, that there were amongst the addressers to Governor Hutchinson, one hundred men equal in wealth to any other hundreds in the Town of Boston. Nemium ne crede.

So far are the people of this province from discovering the "high criminality" of "a certain instrument purporting to be a solemn league and covenant," that it has made more rapid progress through many towns since Thursday last, than ever before. By what act of the British Parliament or clause in the oath of allegiance are we inhibited from raising our flax and wool, or encouraging our own manufactures in preference to those of any other country? If there be no act of the British Parliament or of the province against it, what are the "dangerous consequences" which we are told will ensue? A cool observer of the times cannot but smile to hear some connoisseurs say, that the trade of the colonies is of no more importance to the mother country than a single thread in a whole piece, while others with as high a tone assure us, that to "suspend all commercial intercourse" with her in one province only, will "distress the British nation" !!!

Mills and Hicks Paper of last Monday, announces that the Governor has assurance that 10,000 Canadians are ready to march hither upon the shortest warning, to support Government. HUM!

Nothing could equal the virulent abuse offered to the Committee of Correspondence at the Town Meeting last Monday, but the calmness those gentlemen discovered under it, the foul language used with unlimited freedom by their accusers, is not to be palliated as being hastily uttered in the warmth of debate, for it had been committed to writing in a cool hour, and was read in the Meeting. The Committee have repeatedly received the fullest approbation of the town, in a very crouded meeting within a fortnight, and the last time after the severest scrutiny into their conduct.

Extract of a letter from New-York, June 26th, 1774.

"I am extremely well pleased with the spirit and glorious conduct of your General Court. They are a band of patriots, fit to be entrusted with the rights and liberties of a people; and whose resolution and good sense, would do them honour in any country under heaven; and at the same time I felicitate you, on the pleasing prospect of American affairs, and the unanimity which apparently subsists throughout this wide extended continent; which cannot fail to conduct us to the summit of our wishes, by procuring us a restoration of our inestimable rights and liberties; and an ample redress of all our grievances.

CHARLES-TOWN, SEPTEMBER 26.

IN the Memo. of the oldest Man here, there has not been seen a Month of September, so serene so far as the present, or so cold as since the 20th; nor is it remembered, that there has ever been a Harvest so forward.—There was a Froft on the 21st, and Rice will be at Market much earlier than usual.

It is thought, that if Mr. Bellamy's Machines, for grinding and cleaning Rice, should fully answer the Purposes for which they are designed, our whole Crops of that Grain may, in future, be exported by the Month of April.

Last Tuesday Morning died, a most humane and generous spirited young Gentleman—Mr. MICHAEL MEARA, Nephew to James Parsons, Esquire.

The same Day, Mr. Josiah Bonneau, of this Town, Merchant, was married to Miss Susannah Eberlin, of Ponpon.

Yesterday arrived here the Eagle Packet-Boat commanded by Capt. William Nicholls, with the August Mail from Falmouth.——When this Packet left England, the People there in general, did not seem to believe, that the Americans had VIRTUE enough to work out the Salvation of those Rights, which their Ancestors preserved and handed down to them as the greater Blessings they could enjoy. They made a Jest of Non-importation Agreements amongst us, and flattered themselves that we should never be able to adhere to them, amidst the numerous indirect and secret Attempts that would be made to defeat our Intentions.

Last Night died, much regretted, Mr. Aaron Simonson, a young Gentleman who a few Years since came into this Province, from New-York, with Mr. Jeremiah Brower, with whom he established himself in the commercial Way here.

Price of Rice 50*s.* per 100lb.—Quantity exported from this Port, since the 1st Day of November last, 113,226 Tierces.

To the worthy Families, Descendants of the French Protestants, formerly Inhabitants of this Town; the Zeal and Piety of whose Ancestors built the FRENCH CHURCH, yet standing.

PETER LEVRIER,

PRESENT Pastor of the said Church, observing, with infinite Regret, its great Decay and almost utter Dissolution, owing as he supposes, to the general Disuse of the French Tongue; desirous that a Church which formerly so distinguished itself for its exemplary Piety and Zeal, should not lose its Existence, and at the same Time willing to contribute his Part to the Welfare of his Fellow Men, takes this Liberty to offer his Service to the Descendants of the French Refugees, and to as many others as shall employ him, to instruct their Children in the most complete Manner in the FRENCH LANGUAGE.

He thinks it almost useless to hint to the Public, the great Utility of the French Tongue in the present Age; its Importance to those who travel, its Advantage in Trade, its Use to Men of extensive Reading. The Importance of keeping up this Language, and especially a French Church, in such a populous and growing Place, where many Strangers will always resort, and in Process of Time many French Protestants be cast, must appear to all. Such a Church, properly attended, would not only answer the Ends of the Gospel of our Lord, but be a constant School for Youth, in that most profitable Language. He thinks that it ought especially to be agreeable to those whose Ancestors bravely encountered all the Hardships of Flight into a Wilderness, to serve their God with Simplicity; to do their Part to preserve in Being a Church erected by their pious Fathers, and to perpetuate this Monument of their Fortitude and Zeal. It was here that God gave them Rest, and accomplished for them the Prophecy of Ezekiel, "Although I have cast them far off among the Heathen, and although I have scattered them among the Countries, yet will I be to them as a little Sanctuary in the Countries where they shall come."

By applying to Mr. LEVRIER for his Proposals, any Person will be convinced that he is more actuated by a View to the Public Good, than to his own private Interest; and he trusts that the Method which he shall pursue, will be such, as to give his Pupils the best Advantage to make a rapid Progress in the Knowledge of that polite and elegant Language.

RUN-AWAY

From the Subscriber's Place, near CHARLES-TOWN, On Wednesday, the 21st Day of September Inst.

TWO NEGRO FELLOWS,

NAMED PRINCE and JACOB:—Prince is a stout, well-made Fellow, about 5 Feet 11 Inches high, of a black Complexion, and rather of a thin long Visage, is a little pitted with the Small-Pox, and about 30 Years of Age;—had on when he went away, an Osnabrugs Shirt and Trowsers, and commonly wore a thick Cap; He was born in New-Jersey or Pennsylvania, and was brought up to the Tanning-Business, at Mr. Potts's, in Trent Town in New-Jersey, who afterwards sold him to Mr. Joseph Taylor, of the same Province, from whom Mr. Radcliffe, jun. bought him, 26th November, 1772, at William Cooper's Ferry, and was brought Passenger by Captain Blewer, from Philadelphia to this Place, shortly after that Date; since he has been here, he has sometimes worked at the Business he was brought up to, and at other Times, has gone in a Scooner: He speaks very good English, and has at several Times, when out on the same Errand he is now on, endeavoured to pass for a free Fellow, and changes his Name to Tom, Peter, &c. instead of his own;—it is imagined he will do the same now, and will try to get back by Land or by Water, but most probably by the first, to the Place where he was brought up at, or to some Place to the Northward of this.

JACOB is a thick, well-made Fellow, about 5 Feet 8 Inches high, and is remarkably well-legged, of a blackish Complexion, full-faced, with a chubbed thick Nose, and thick pouting Lips, and bushy Head of Hair, which grows pretty low over his Forehead, and he appears to be about 35 Years of Age: He was born and brought up in North-Carolina to the Farming-Business, and to driving a Waggon, &c. &c. was brought up by one Mr. Thomas Hovendon, of that Province, and sold the 16th of May, 1772: He speaks very good English, and it is supposed he will also endeavour to pass for a free Negro, and go with the above-mentioned Fellow, or to the Place in North-Carolina where he was brought up.——Whoever will apprehend and deliver either of the above-mentioned Fellows to the Subscriber, or to the Warden of the Work-House, shall receive TEN POUNDS Currency for each, and all reasonable Charges; and, if any Person will inform of either of them being harboured by a Negro, shall receive a Reward of TWENTY POUNDS, or if by a white Person FIFTY POUNDS Currency, on Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.—All Masters of Vessels and others, are hereby forwarned from employing them, or carrying the said Negro Fellows off, or out of this Province, as they will, on Conviction of the same, be prosecuted to the utmost Rigour of the Law, by

THOMAS RADCLIFFE.
